

REGISTER NOW! - "MSc Biobanking" in Graz

This year our first international graduates will complete the distance learning Master course "MSc Biobanking" at the BBMRI.at partner Medical University of Graz – Biobank Graz.

At the same time the next Master course is starting. Therefore registration for the distance learning Master course "MSC Biobanking" in English starting in October 2018 is open now.

Please notice that modules can be booked individually as well without attending the whole Master course and finalized with a document stating attendance of the course. However, this will not lead to receiving a Master's degree.
